Members of the Muskegon Lakeshore Chamber of Commerce are in South Carolina tonight. They were hoping to bring the honor of being the top Chamber of Commerce their size in North America.

The Vail Valley Partnership in Colorado took home the top prize, but the local chamber was still honored as a top finalist, along with Springfield, Ohio.

Members who didn't make the trip south, watched a live stream of the Wednesday's announcement. Despite not winning, they say it's still nice the job they are doing is being noticed. Larry Hines the Board Chair says, "We have an extremely dedicated group of employees that work at the chamber, but what really makes the chamber work, like a lot of non-profits is all the volunteers. Many of the people here tonight are volunteers and they're excited about their chamber being recognized." Tonight's honor comes after the Muskegon Lakeshore Chamber of Commerce was named chamber of the year in Michigan last year.
